Privacy Policy

The Law Council of Australia (LCA) respects your privacy.

The LCA will treat the information you provide on this form in accordance with the LCA Privacy Policy and its obligations under the National Privacy Principles (NPPs), as set out in the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth). A copy of the LCA Privacy Policy can be obtained from www.lawcouncil.asn.au or by contacting us on the numbers set out below.

Personal information collected by the LCA from this renewal form will be used to process your renewal for Section membership and for purposes which are related to your Section membership.

Your personal information may be disclosed to people or bodies who provide services to the LCA. We may also disclose information including your name, contact and admission details and areas of speciality to the constituent bodies of the LCA, so that they may contact you about other membership and matters relevant to the profession. If you do not want us to disclose your personal information to the LCA constituent bodies, please tick the box below.

I do not want the LCA to disclose my personal information to its constituent bodies.

If you do not provide all or part of your personal information, the LCA may not be able to process your application or make available to you information or services that you may otherwise have been entitled to as a member of an LCA Section.

You can gain access to the personal information that LCA holds about you, subject to the conditions set out in the NPPs, by contacting us.

Law Council of Australia Human Rights Fund

The Law Council Human Rights Fund has been established to provide funding for:

- Australian lawyers to attend trials in the Asia/Pacific region as trial observers, whether on behalf of the Law Council alone or in conjunction with other recognised human rights organisations, where those trials involve issues of human rights;
- review of, and studies into, international human rights issues and abuses and provide reports to the Law Council either alone or in conjunction with other recognised human rights organisations;
- training, conferences and seminars on human rights issues in the Asia/Pacific region; and
- scholarships and study grants into human rights issues.

Membership Fees

$95.00 of the full fee-paying membership fee goes to the Law Council of Australia Limited's general account to cover administrative costs; the remainder goes to the Family Law Section to further the objects of the Section.
