

Essentials of Family Law Practice

30 July–1 August 2009

Essentials of Family Law Practice is designed to equip participants with the fundamentals of excellent family law practice. It is a wholly practical program where you will learn how to work effectively, efficiently and ethically with your clients.

The program will benefit recently-admitted practitioners, those who are new to family law, and those who require a refresher in the jurisdiction.

Sessions will cover:

- Best Practice in Family Law
- Knowing the Law: Children
- Knowing the Law: Financial Issues
- Establishing Client Relationships
- Early Settlement Opportunities—non-litigious practice techniques
- Going To Court
- Court Procedures
- A brief history of the jurisdiction

The program provides:

- Interactive experiences and the preparation of documents
- Notes and materials to work with during the training
- A package of practical and contemporary resources for further use and reference

The Program is supported by a pre-eminent teaching faculty, including:

- The Hon Justice Peter Murphy, Family Court of Australia;
- Federal Magistrate Grant Riethmuller, Federal Magistrates Court
- Zoe Rathus, Griffith University;
- Leading family law practitioners and other specialists.
